Overview

Glimpse of Everest Trek is short compared to the itinerary of a full-fledged Everest Base Camp Trek because it is filled up with natural wonders from Lukla to Tengboche and takes a gentler pace trekking route and showcases presiding mountains that have scaled and overtopped ridges and valleys in the heart of the Everest Region, which a true trekker wants to roll in his itinerary what he or she calls a typical and perfect trekking itinerary of the world. This is the only refreshing and uncompromising trek in the world in which the beauties of Mt. Everest, Mt. Lhotse, Mt. Thamserku, Mt. Amadablam & others keep on coming to your eyes at an enormous volume as you set out to a final destination by the mountains. This is a short trek that has a capacity to offer you a lot; this is also a trek, which is perfect for a trekker, who wants to immerse and swallow all the hidden gems of mountains that he or she has never seen previously in their life.

The final destination that you have to reach is Tengboche, which ascends to 3860 m. Every aspect of Tengboche monastery that you see is unspoiled and has a fabulous feature in an isolated place of the world as far as your eye can see.

The glimpse of Everest Trek helps you to discover unforgettable mountain flight to Lukla, where the airport is adventurous for a trekker like you or for an outsider like you. And this airport is quintessential of an amazing landing. After a fearful landing, you resume your normal heartbeat and head off to a trekking route which is refreshed with natural vegetation and white river, triggering a hope that the world's highest mountain will be seen soon. Ahead are the hamlets that you have to pass through, and these hamlets are unrivaled when it comes to knowing every bit of the Sherpa culture.

Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival in Kathmandu and transfer to the hotel. (1400m)

You will be warmly welcomed at the airport by our office representative and then transfer to the hotel. Our trekking guide will give a brief explanation of the program. This day you can stay within the hotel or enjoy the night at the hotel inclusive breakfast.
