Overview

Paragliding in Nepal is a relatively new adventure sport in Nepal and before it was introduced the idea of flying in an ultra-light aircraft seemed quite crazy. This is crazy for to the local people. Sarangkot is the most popular destination in Nepal for paragliding and a flight from Sarangkot will take you across a superb Himalayan scenery, as you fly beside vultures, eagles, kites and float over scattered villages, grand monasteries, temples, lakes and forests. Paragliding in Nepal is an adventures sports outdoor activity for the adventure seekers. If you are thinking about paragliding in Nepal, you do not need to have experience because our qualified instructor will guide you.

The starting point of the paragliding trip is only few minutes drive from Lake Side, Pokhara. Lake Side is a place like Kathmandu, Thamel, but it is more chilled out and cleaner. A short drive from lake side takes us to Sarangkot where our paragliding trip begins. Besides paragliding, Sarangkot also offers very impressive sunrise and sunset views. We can see the mesmerizing lake side and mountain views from the top of Sarangkot hills.
