Overview

A short trek like Ghorepani allures to non-intrepid travelers because of the compelling panoramic mountain view that speak louder than words. Give this trek an easy trek sobriquet, nothing is more applicable than this saying to Ghorepani trek. In this trek, what you see directly is lofty mountains along the century old hills that keep abreast with one another. It balances two unidentical features perfectly that even your mind, which is used to critical and analytical thinking, accepts it in a fraction of second. Flashing from these hills, these mountains sparkled your eyes with happiness, while your heart pounds as you walk on a village man-made trekking route that function to make you a wanderer rather than a trekker.

And set amid in these mountains is the Annapurna Ranges, the giants of the mountains, which are Gangapurna, Annapurna I, Annapurna II, Annapurna South, Nilgiri, Dhaulagiri, Machhapuchhre, and other appealing mountains, which shine in their beauties and create tranquilities and peaceful valley around you and take you on a verge to dub this place as the world's coolest place. Moreover, this place has a vista of the inner beauty of nature and is really hard to tell that it does not give what you expect from the Himalayas.

What makes short Ghorepani trek enticing is an altitude that leads to spectacular view that leads to a grueling uphill and that is worth to get there from every sense of a trekker and wanderer, who wants to get lost in the chronicles of natural beauties.

Poon hill, loved by the expats, is a go-to-attraction of short Ghorepani trek because it is an authentic viewpoint that has an appealing feature, where they will find quietness but plenty of mountains view. It will not be wrong to say Poonhill as a gem of the Annapurna Region because it gives a trekker a full freedom to be awed in the magical sunrise view over the mountains.

The belongings of short Ghorepani trek are enriched with lush forest, perennial rivers, beautiful valleys and blue lakes, which are so welcoming that you have to keep your camera handy.
