Overview

Get an easy uphill walking taste of The Royal Trek which is replete with low altitudes, village life, Annapurna Ranges, consisting of Annapurna I, Annapurna II, Annapurna III, Annapurna South, terraced fields, lakes, including mountains, such as Fishtail, Langtang, Dhaulagiri, Nilgiri, and Lamjung. This trek is an immersive experience. Although The Royal Trek is short, yet it has been outsized by the famous personalities like The Prince Charles and Mick Zagar, the vocalist of The Rolling Stones.

If you want to enjoy your week fruitfully without exhausting and want to make it memorable, this trek is more than Mr. Perfect. You will find this trek the grandest because it is ornamented with natural beauties, and none of these hides from your eyes that seek beauties that is no longer secret. These beauties are open like a book. This trek is also full of drama because the tips of the mountains overlook at you, and they look bluff, and the trek seems to be boasting of this.

The trekking trail of The Royal Trek seems to have permanence silence, so it is less crowded, which in other words mean, this is a great trek if you are seeking privacy. It simply accomplishes this although you will have a busy incident in which your mind will be occupied with seeing of wondrous mountains. Overall, this is a secluded trek.

You start off this Trek from Pokhara, the city of lakes. Pokhara is so compact that you can swallow its beauties within 24 hours, as well as you can reach from one place to another place quickly. In addition to this, Pokhara is one of the finest cities in the world for its geological wonders. Here, you will be allowed to spend a night by the lake. If you like then you can go for boating, and in the water, you see the breathtaking reflection of the mountain.
